WHY BECOME A MEMBER?

- DFWA understands the key issues of concern to the serving and ex-serving communities.
- DFWA advocates directly to key Ministerial decision makers, to the leaders of other political parties, and to legislators in general.
- DFWA has a reputation for measured and considered research on policy matters.
- DFWA is an authorized participant at the Defence Force Remuneration Tribunal hearings, and advocates on behalf of ADF members to protect their pay and conditions of service.
- DFWA Branches have trained Advocates capable of assisting members in dealings with the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

DFWA is widely accepted by all sides of politics to be a reputable and professional Ex-Service Organisation. That allows it to readily interact with senior Government decision makers in a way not generally open to individual lobbying.

The Association is an active member of the Alliance of Defence Service Organisations (ADSO).

AUSTRALIAN DEFENCE COMMUNITY

OUR MISSION

'.....to foster the best interests and welfare of all members of the Australian Defence Force and their families in any matter likely to affect them during or after their period of service.....'

THE ASSOCIATION

Background:

- Established in 1959.
- National organisation with Branches in all States.
- A foremost Ex-Service Organisation.
- Supported by the Chief of Defence Force.
- Membership based and supported.
- Fiercely non-partisan - works with all sides of politics.
- Publishes 'Camaraderie' three times a year (free to members) containing articles on topical issues.

PRINCIPAL ROLES

Roles are:

- Protect and improve the pay and conditions of service of all serving ADF members.
- Advocate strongly for fair and equitable treatment of the retirement benefits of all serving and ex ADF members.
- Provide strong and forceful advocacy service when dealing with DVA and the Government.

The Association is politically neutral and confines itself to issues that have a direct impact on either the welfare of those still serving in the ADF, and/or those who once served.
